Currently enrolled and returning families have priority for summer camp enrollment. Applications are due February 25, 2024 and enrollment offers will be emailed no later than March 15, 2024. Upon receiving an offer, your family will be invited for an in-person tour before any commitment is made. Decisions for enrollment are made to ensure a balanced learning environment. Upon acceptance, a non-refundable deposit ($100 per week enrolled) is required to hold your child's spot. Please do not send a deposit with your application. We aim to be a school for all interested families and scholarships are available. Mulberry House does not discriminate based on race, religion, sexual orientation, disability, ethnicity or family structure. All students of Mulberry House must be fully immunized to attend.
